Berkshire Funds

BERKSHIRE FOCUS FUND (BFOCX)

This report is provided for the general information of the Berkshire Funds shareholders. It is not authorized for distribution unless preceded or accompanied by an effective Prospectus, which contains more complete information about the Berkshire Funds. Please read it carefully before you invest.

In recent years, returns have sustained significant gains and losses due to market volatility in the technology sector. Due to market volatility, current performance may be lower than the figures shown. Call 1-877-526-0707 or visit berkshirefunds.com for more current performance information. Past performance is no guarantee of future results and investment results and principal value will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The returns shown do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or the redemption of Fund shares. Total return includes reinvestment of dividends and capital gain distributions.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average is a measurement of general market price movement for 30 widely-held stocks primarily listed on the New York Stock Exchange. The S&P 500® Index is a registered trademark of Standard & Poor's Corporation and is a market-weighted index of common stock prices for 500 large U.S. companies. The Nasdaq Composite Index is a capitalization-weighted index of over 5,000 common stocks listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market. Each index represents an unmanaged, broad-based basket of stocks. These indices are typically used as benchmarks for overall market performance.

Portfolio composition is subject to change at any time and references to specific securities, industries and sectors are not recommendations to purchase or sell any particular security.

GROWTH OF $10,000 (3)

(1) The fund's inception date was july 1, 1997.

(2) Stated as a percentage of total net assets as of 12/31/15 . The holdings information provided should not be construed as a recommendation to purchase or sell a particular security and may not be representative of the fund's current or future investments.

(3) This chart assumes an initial investment of $10,000 made on 12/31/05 . Past performance does not guarantee future results. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. All returns reflect reinvested dividends but do not reflect the impact of taxes.

(4) Stated as a percentage of total net assets as of 12/31/15 . The holdings by sector are presented to illustrate examples of the sectors in which the fund has bought securities and may not be representative of the fund's current or future investments.

(5) This fund concentrates its investments in the technology industry. As a result, the fund is subject to greater risk than more diversified funds because of its concentration of investments in fewer companies and certain segments of a single industry.

Berkshire Focus Fund

Performance and Portfolio Discussion

12/31/2015

LETTER TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

Dear Fellow Shareholders,

For the twelve month period ended December 31, 2015, the Berkshire Focus Fund outperformed its primary benchmark index. The Fund generated a total return of +13.32% while the S&P 500® Index – which we consider to be the Fund's primary benchmark index – had a total return of +1.38% over the same period. For comparative purposes, the Dow Jones Industrial Average posted a return of +0.21% and the Nasdaq Composite Index generated a return of +7.11% for the year. Please see the Fund Overview section and the accompanying financial statements for more detailed information about the Fund's longer-term performance. All return data includes reinvested dividends but do not reflect the impact of taxes.

We are pleased to report that for calendar year 2015, we met our long-standing goal of delivering superior returns to our shareholders. Our concentrated style of investing along with our focus in the technology sector resulted in the significant outperformance of the Fund relative to its equity market benchmarks; both on an absolute and relative basis. At this time however, we feel it is prudent to remind our shareholders that such strong relative results are unsustainable. As U.S. equities begin to approach fair value, we expect near-term returns will be muted – along with an increase in the volatility of stock prices. Nevertheless, 2015 was certainly a year to remember and we hope that you enjoyed the rewards for your patience as a long-term investor in the Fund.

Turning to the third quarter, U. S. equity markets drifted sideways early in the period as investors were unable to shake-off persistent worries over falling oil prices and speculation about how, or when, the Federal Reserve would raise interest rates. In late-August, investor sentiment was further aggravated by a sharp downturn in Chinese equity markets and an unexpected devaluation of China's currency – which stoked fears of a prolonged slow-down in the Chinese economy. Not surprisingly, this amalgam of negative events proved too much for investors to handle, igniting a steep market sell-off that would last until the end of the quarter.

Despite investor angst, U.S. equity markets staged a strong rally at the beginning of the fourth quarter that lasted into November. Fueling the stock market's advance was weak U.S. economic data which caused the markets to reconsider its rate-hike expectations for October, dovish comments from the European Central Bank signaling more monetary stimulus by year-end, better-than-expected corporate earnings reports, and a surprise interest rate cut by the People's Bank of China. As the quarter progressed, U.S. equity markets moved sideways for the balance of the period – mostly in anticipation of the first Fed funds interest rate hike in nine years, which occurred at the December FOMC meeting.

Looking at the portfolio, positions in Amazon.com (+118%), Facebook (+34%), Netflix (+134%), and Palo Alto Networks (+44%) were major contributors to our performance. Other contributors to the Fund were Regeneron Pharmaceuticals (+32%), Salesforce.com (+32%) and Under Armour (+19%). Some of our investments struggled however, which detracted from our performance results during the period. These included Alibaba Group Holding (–22%) and Twitter (–35%). New significant additions to the portfolio in the second-half of the year were Alphabet, Ctrip.com, Expedia, JD.com, McDonald's, Microsoft, Nike, Starbucks, and ULTA Salon, Cosmetics & Fragrance.

As always, we thank you for your confidence and continued investment in the Berkshire Focus Fund.

(A) Net investment loss per share is calculated using ending balances prior to consideration or adjustment for permanent book and tax differences.

(B) Net investment loss was calculated using the average shares outstanding method.

(C) Net realized and unrealized gain on investments per share is a balancing amount necessary to reconcile the change in net asset value per share for the period, and may not reconcile with the net realized and unrealized loss on investments in the statement of operations.

(D) Total return represents the rate that the investor would have earned or (lost) on an investment in the fund assuming reinvestment of dividends.

(E) The ratio of expenses to average net assets includes interest expense. The ratios excluding interest expense would be 1.99%, 1.98%, 1.99%, 2.00% and 2.00%, respectively.

(F) Portfolio turnover is greater than most funds due to the investment style of the fund.

(see accompanying notes to financial statements)

1. Organization

The Berkshire Focus Fund (the “Fund”) is a non-diversified series of The Berkshire Funds (the “Trust”), an open-end management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”). The Trust was organized as a Delaware business trust on November 25, 1996. The Fund commenced operations on July 1, 1997. The Fund’s investment objective is to seek long-term growth of capital primarily through investments in equity securities.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

The Fund is an investment company and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 946 Financial Services – Investment Companies.

The following is a summary of the Trust’s significant accounting policies:

Securities valuation — The Fund's portfolio securities are valued as of the close of the regular session of trading on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”), normally 4:00 p.m., Eastern time. Securities which are traded on stock exchanges or are quoted by Nasdaq are valued at the last reported sale price as of the close of the regular session of trading on the NYSE, or, if not traded, at the most recent bid price. Securities which are traded in the over-the-counter market, and which are not quoted by Nasdaq, are valued at the most recent bid price, as obtained from one or more of the major market makers for such securities. Securities for which market quotations are not readily available are valued at their fair value as determined in good faith in accordance with consistently applied procedures established by and under the general supervision of the Board of Trustees.

The Trust has adopted accounting standards which establish an authoritative definition of fair value and set out a hierarchy for measuring fair value. These standards require additional disclosures about the various inputs and valuation techniques used to develop the measurements of fair value and a discussion of changes in valuation techniques and related inputs during the period. These standards define fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value hierarchy is organized into three levels based upon the assumptions (referred to as “inputs”) used in pricing the asset or liability. These standards state that “observable inputs” reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from independent sources and “unobservable inputs” reflect an entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. These inputs are summarized in the three broad levels listed below:

Level 1 – quoted prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 – other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.).

Level 3 – significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments).

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used to value the Fund's net assets as of December 31, 2015:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Common Stocks
Internet Software & Services	$ 28,006,942	–	–	$28,006,942

Exchange Traded Funds	1,342	–	–	1,342
Total Investments	$ 68,446,147	–	–	$ 68,446,147

There were no transfers into or out of Level 1, Level 2 or Level 3 fair value measurements during the reporting period, as compared to their classification from the most recent annual report. It is the Fund's policy to consider transfers into or out of Level 1, Level 2 or Level 3 as of the end of the reporting period. The Fund did not hold any derivative instruments during the reporting period.

Investment income — Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Interest income is accrued as earned.

Distributions to shareholders — Distributions to shareholders arising from net investment income and net realized capital gains, if any, are distributed at least once each year. Distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Dividends from net investment income and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Security transactions — Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Securities sold are determined on a specific identification basis.

Estimates — The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Federal income tax — The Fund intends to comply with the requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") necessary to qualify as a regulated investment company. As provided therein, in any fiscal year in which the Fund so qualifies and distributes at least 90% of its taxable net income, the Fund (but not the shareholders) will be relieved of federal income tax on the income distributed. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made.

As of and during the year ended December 31, 2015, the Fund did not have a liability for any unrecognized tax benefits. The Fund recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as other expense on the statement of operations. During the year, the Fund did not incur any tax-related interest or penalties.

In order to avoid imposition of the excise tax applicable to regulated investment companies, it is also the Fund's intention to declare as dividends in each calendar year at least 98% of its net investment income and 98.2% of its net realized capital gains plus undistributed amounts from prior years.

Other — The treatment for financial reporting purposes of distributions made to shareholders during the year from net investment income or net realized capital gains may differ from their ultimate treatment for federal income tax purposes. These differences are caused primarily by differences in the timing of the recognition of certain components of income, expense or realized capital gain for federal income tax purposes. Where such differences are permanent in nature, they are reclassified in the components of the net assets based on their ultimate characterization for federal income tax purposes. Any such reclassifications will have no effect on net assets, results of operations or net asset value per share of the Fund. For the year ended December 31, 2015, the Fund reclassified the net investment loss of $1,231,648 to paid-in capital.

3. Investment Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities (excluding short-term instruments) for the year ended December 31, 2015 were $296,054,068 and $300,144,099, respectively. There were no purchases or sales of U.S. Government securities for the Fund.

4. Tax Information

As of December 31, 2015, the components of accumulated earnings (deficit) on a tax basis were as follows:

Federal income tax cost	$	60,514,287
Gross unrealized appreciation	$	9,857,526
Gross unrealized depreciation		(1,925,666)
Net unrealized appreciation		7,931,860
Undistributed ordinary income		–
Undistributed long term gains		71,333
Accumulated losses		–
Total accumulated gains	$	8,003,193

The cost basis of investments for tax and financial reporting purposes differs primarily due to the deferral of capital losses from wash sales.

There was a long-term and short-term capital gains distribution paid in the amount of $6,030,774 and $28,077 during the years ended December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, respectively.

At December 31, 2015, the Fund had no accumulated net realized capital loss carryforwards. During the year ended December 31, 2015, the Fund utilized $4,686,738 of its outstanding loss carryforward.

5. Related Party Transactions, Investment Advisory and Administrative Fees

Certain Officers and Trustees of the Trust are also Officers and Directors of Berkshire Capital Holdings, Inc. ("Berkshire Capital"). The non-interested Trustees of the Fund were paid $14,617 in Trustee fees and expenses directly by Berkshire Capital during the year ended December 31, 2015.

The Fund has an Investment Advisory Agreement (the "Advisory Agreement") and a separate Administration Agreement with Berkshire Capital. Under the Advisory Agreement, Berkshire Capital will determine what securities will be purchased, retained or sold by the Fund on the basis of a continuous review of the portfolio. For the services it provides under the Advisory Agreement, Berkshire Capital receives a fee accrued each calendar day (including weekends and holidays) at a rate of 1.50% per annum of the daily net assets of the Fund. Under the Administration Agreement, Berkshire Capital renders all administrative and supervisory services of the Fund, as well as facilities furnished and expenses assumed. For these services, Berkshire Capital receives a fee at the annual rate of 0.50% of the Fund's average daily net assets up to $50 million, 0.45% of average net assets from $50 million to $200 million, 0.40% of average net assets from $200 million to $500 million, 0.35% of average net assets from $500 million to $1 billion and 0.30% of average net assets in excess of $1 billion. Such fee is computed as a percentage of the Fund's daily net assets and is accrued each calendar day (including weekends and holidays). For the year ended December 31, 2015, Berkshire Capital was paid an investment advisory fee of $981,839 and an administration fee of $319,552 from the Fund. The amount due to Berkshire Capital for these fees at December 31, 2015 totaled $117,671.

6. Redemption Fee

The Fund may impose a redemption fee of 2.00% on shares held for 90 days or less. For the year ended December 31, 2015, proceeds from redemption fees were $18,141.

7. Beneficial Ownership

The beneficial ownership, either directly or indirectly, of more than 25% of the voting securities of a fund creates a presumption of control of the fund, under Section 2(a)(9) of the Investment Company Act of 1940. At December 31, 2015, National Financial Services Corp. and Charles Schwab & Co. beneficially owned, in aggregate, 37.79% and 31.01% of the Fund, respectively.

8. Subsequent Events

In preparing these financial statements, management has performed an evaluation of subsequent events after December 31, 2015 and determined that there were no significant subsequent events that would require adjustment to or additional disclosure in the financial statements.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Berkshire Funds
San Jose, California

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the portfolio of investments, of Berkshire Focus Fund (the "Fund"), a series of The Berkshire Funds, as of December 31, 2015, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of December 31, 2015, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Berkshire Focus Fund as of December 31, 2015, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

EXPENSE EXAMPLE

As a shareholder of the Fund, you incur two types of costs: (1) transaction costs, and (2) ongoing costs, including advisory fees, administrative fees and interest expense. This Example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. The Example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested in the Fund on July 1, 2015 and held through December 31, 2015.

Actual Expenses

The first line of the table on the following page provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. Although the Fund charges no sales load or transaction fees, you will be assessed fees for outgoing wire transfers, returned checks and stop payment orders at prevailing rates charged by Mutual Shareholder Services, LLC, the Fund's transfer agent. If you request that a redemption be made by wire transfer, currently a $20.00 fee is charged by the Fund's transfer agent. IRA accounts will be charged an $8.00 annual maintenance fee. To the extent the Fund invests in shares of other investment companies as part of its investment strategy, you will indirectly bear your proportionate share of any fees and expenses charged by the underlying funds in which the Fund invests in addition to the expenses of the Fund. Actual expenses of the underlying funds are expected to vary among the various underlying funds. These expenses are not included in the example. The example includes advisory fees, administrative fees and interest expense. However, the example does not include portfolio trading commissions and related expenses and other extraordinary expenses as determined under generally accepted accounting principles. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the table provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds. Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

	Beginning Account Value July 1, 2015	Ending Account Value December 31, 2015	Expenses Paid During the Period* July 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015
Actual	$1,000.00	$1,133.20	$10.70
Hypothetical (5% annual return before expenses)	$1,000.00	$1,015.17	$10.11

*Expenses are equal to the Fund's annualized expense ratio of 2.00%, multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 184/365 to reflect the one-half year period.

APPROVAL OF INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

The Board of Trustees, including a majority of the Trustees who are not “interested persons” of the Trust (the “Independent Trustees”), approved the continuation of the Investment Advisory Agreement (the “Advisory Agreement”) with Berkshire Capital Holdings, Inc. (the “Adviser”) at a meeting on December 12, 2015.

The Trustees were assisted by experienced independent legal counsel throughout the contract review process. The Independent Trustees discussed the proposed continuance in executive session with such counsel at which no representatives of the Adviser were present. The Independent Trustees relied upon the advice of independent legal counsel and their own business judgment in determining the material factors to be considered in evaluating the Advisory Agreement and the weight to be given to each such factor. Among other factors, the Trustees considered the Fund’s performance; the nature, extent and quality of the services provided; the costs of the services provided; any profits realized by the Adviser; the extent to which economies of scale will be realized as the Fund grows; and whether fees reflect those economies of scale. The conclusions reached by the Independent Trustees were based on a comprehensive evaluation of all of the information provided and were not the result of any one factor. Moreover, each Independent Trustee may have afforded different weight to the various factors in reaching his conclusions with respect to the Advisory Agreement.

At the December 12, 2015 Board meeting, a representative of the Adviser referred the Trustees to the materials that had been provided to them for purposes of their consideration of the Advisory Agreement. He summarized the services provided by the Adviser to the Fund and he reported that there were no material changes in the structure or relationships of the Adviser. The representative next reviewed with the Trustees the average total returns of the Fund through September 30, 2015 and through November 30, 2015 (year-to-date, 1-year, 3-years, 5-years and 10-years), and the expense ratios and management fees of the Fund in comparison with funds in the Lipper Science and Technology Fund category with net assets ranging from $25 million to $100 million. He also reviewed comparisons of the Fund’s performance with its benchmark indices, as well as the Lipper Science and Technology Funds Index and Lipper Multi-Cap Growth Funds Index (the “Lipper peer groups”). He noted that he had reviewed the Adviser’s balance sheet and income statement with the Trustees prior to the meeting. He then led a discussion regarding the Adviser’s profitability, indicating a profit margin at the time of analysis.

Investment Performance

The Trustees then considered the investment performance of the Fund over various periods of time ended September 30, 2015 and November 30, 2015, as compared to its benchmark indices and the Lipper peer groups. The Trustees noted in particular the investment performance delivered by the Adviser to the Fund over the 10-year periods ended September 30, 2015 and November 30, 2015, remarking that the Fund had outperformed its benchmark indices and its Lipper peer groups for those periods. The Trustees also noted that, although the Fund for the most part trailed its benchmark indices and the Lipper peer groups over the 3-year and 5-year periods, its short-term performance (year-to-date and 1-year periods), was significantly better than that of the benchmark indices (except for the NASDAQ Composite Index for the one-year period ended November 30, 2015) and Lipper peer groups.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services Provided by the Investment Adviser

The Trustees then reviewed the nature, quality and scope of current and anticipated services provided by the Adviser under the Advisory Agreement. The Trustees discussed the Adviser's experience and the capabilities of the Adviser's portfolio manager. For example, the Trustees reviewed and discussed the Adviser's Form ADV and internal compliance policies, as well as the experience of the Adviser as investment adviser or sub-adviser to other investment companies. In addition to the above considerations, the Trustees reviewed and considered a description of the Adviser's portfolio and brokerage transactions, noting that the Adviser received no soft dollars. Based on this review, the Trustees concluded that the range and quality of services to be provided by the Adviser to the Fund were appropriate and continued to support its original selection of the Adviser.

Costs of Services Provided

The Trustees next reviewed the terms of the Advisory Agreement and the Administration Agreement, concluding after discussion with independent counsel that it was appropriate to consider them together, given that the Adviser was performing all services under the agreements and that the Administration Agreement called for the Adviser to pay substantially all of the Fund's expenses (except for the investment advisory fee). The Trustees concluded that it would be putting form over substance to treat the two agreements separately. The representative of the Adviser then reviewed the advisory fee and expense ratio for the Fund and compared the fee and expense ratio with the advisory fees and expense ratios of the Fund's peer group. He noted that the expense ratio was more meaningful than the actual advisory fee ratio because the agreements have a "universal fee" structure where the Adviser pays substantially all of the expenses of the Fund and is compensated with a higher fee. The representative further noted that most of the funds in the peer group comparisons do not share this structure.

After discussion, the Trustees agreed that, instead of comparing actual advisory fees, it was more appropriate to compare total expense ratios, due to the universal fee structure. The Trustees further noted that some of the funds in the peer group were one class of a fund that had many classes and, thus, benefit from economies of scale provided by the other classes. The Trustees noted that the Fund's total expense ratio was near the top of the third quartile when compared to funds in the Lipper Science and Technology Funds category with net assets ranging from $25 million to $100 million, while the industry average was near the bottom of the third quartile.

At this point, the representative added that the work involved in running the Fund was significantly higher than for most other funds because of the extreme volatility of high-growth technology stocks. He stated that he is actively managing the Fund's portfolio every day, using a time-intensive process to follow news regarding each of the stocks in the portfolio and stocks that he is considering for the portfolio. He estimated that a net positive performance of the Fund is generated by his doing trading "on the edges," which he believes allows the Fund to take advantage of short-term movements in particular stock prices. The Trustees recognized the benefit of the Adviser's active management of the Fund and, based on their review, concluded that the cost of services provided by the Adviser was appropriate.

Profitability of the Adviser

The Trustees next considered an analysis of the profitability of the Adviser from the fees payable under the Advisory Agreement and the Administration Agreement. In addition, the Trustees reviewed the financial condition of the Investment Adviser, as well as information from a Management Practice, Inc. ("MPI") 2013 profitability analysis of 16 public investment managers over the past 10 years. The representative of the Adviser reviewed the profitability analysis with the Trustees, noting that no rent expenses and no distribution or marketing expenses were deducted. The Trustees remarked that the Adviser's level of profitability was below the average profit margins reported in the MPI analysis for equity funds, and therefore concluded that the Adviser's profitability was in the acceptable range.

Economies of Scale

The Trustees next considered whether the Fund has appropriately benefitted from any economies of scale, and whether there is potential for realization of any further economies of scale. The representative of the Adviser reminded the Trustees that the Adviser's fees under the Administration Agreement contain breakpoints and noted that the Fund was already receiving the benefit of the fee reduction at the first break point. The Trustees acknowledged that the Adviser was entitled to reasonable profits and indicated that the existing breakpoints should pass on the benefits of economies of scale to shareholders.

Conclusion

At this point, the Trustees indicated that it was their consensus that the information presented and the discussion of the information were adequate for making a determination regarding the renewal of the Advisory Agreement. As to the nature, extent and quality of services provided by the Adviser, the Trustees expressed their common opinion that the Adviser provides excellent services to the Fund and that the extent of the services is consistent with the Board's expectations. They complimented the Adviser on the Fund's outstanding relative performance over the last ten years. The Trustees then concluded that, based on their review of the fees and overall expense comparisons, as well as all information relating to the profitability of the Adviser, that the advisory and administration fees were reasonable and that the arrangements were not generating excessive profits to the Adviser. The Trustees further concluded that the existing fee breakpoints would make the Adviser's fees reflective of economies of scale.

After further discussion, and based upon all of the above-mentioned factors and their related conclusions, with no single factor or conclusion being determinative and with each Trustee not necessarily attributing the same weight to each factor, the Trustees unanimously determined that the continuation of the Advisory Agreement for an additional year was in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders.
