In recent years, returns have sustained significant gains and losses due to market volatility in the technology sector. Due to market volatility, current performance may be lower than the figures shown. Call 877.526.0707 or visit www.berkshirefunds.com for more current performance information. Past performance is no guarantee of future results and investment results and principal value will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The returns shown do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or the redemption of Fund shares. Total return includes reinvestment of dividends and capital gain distributions.

LETTER TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

Dear Fellow Shareholders,

For the six-month period ended June 30, 2018, the Berkshire Focus Fund outperformed its primary benchmark index. The Fund generated a total return of +22.17% while the S&P 500® Index—which we consider to be the Fund's primary benchmark index—produced a total return of +2.65% over the same period. For comparative purposes, the Dow Jones Industrial Average posted a return of -0.73% and the Nasdaq Composite Index generated a return of +9.37% during the first half of the year. A $10,000 investment in our Fund over 10 years starting on June 30, 2008 grew to $45,905. This was a +16.46% average annual compounded return. A $10,000 investment in the S&P 500® over the same period grew to $26,340. This was a +10.17% average annual compounded return.

"I can't believe that the great mass of investors are going to be satisfied with just receiving average returns."

– Ned Johnson, CEO Fidelity Investments

Stocks soared in January as enthusiasm for the $1.5 trillion in U.S. tax cuts enacted by the Trump administration in late 2017 propelled U.S. equity markets to all-time highs. The enactment of major corporate tax cuts was expected to boost corporate after-tax earnings and help prolong the eight-year U.S. economic expansion. Financial markets were jolted in early February, however, after the January payroll report showed faster-than-expected U.S. wage growth—leading investors to conclude that the long streak of tepid inflation was drawing to a close. The change in investor sentiment came just six trading sessions after U.S. equity indices surged to record highs. The stock market decline turned into a rout as the 10-year Treasury yield surged to a four-year high of 2.85% and the CBOE Volatility Index, or VIX, spiked to 50.3 after trading below 10 at the beginning of the year. Worries about rising interest rates and newfound volatility caused equity markets to decline more than 10% from their January highs—entering correction territory for the first time in two years. Despite investor angst, broad-market equities quickly recovered by mid-March before dropping all the way back to their February lows again at the end of the quarter.

Investors entered the second quarter with an apprehensive mind-set as the absence of a bullish bias following good corporate earnings reports began to weigh on investor sentiment—feeding the concerning narrative about the possibility of hitting peak earnings. President Trump's decision to impose tariffs on steel and aluminum and propose placing tariffs on Chinese exports raised investor fears of retaliation and the risk of an all-out trade war. Meanwhile, stocks were challenged throughout the period by concerns about technology company breaches of user data privacy, slowing U.S. economic growth, and the Federal Reserve signaling it could raise interest rates at a more aggressive pace in 2019. Despite this backdrop, U.S. equity benchmarks regained their losses from March and drifted higher for the balance of the quarter.

Looking at the portfolio, our investments in Amazon.com (AMZN), Adobe Systems (ADBE), Netflix (NFLX), NVIDIA (NVDA), Salesforce.com (CRM), and Square (SQ) were all contributors to the Fund's performance. Some of our investments struggled during the period, however. These included Alibaba (BABA), Arista Networks (ANET), Tencent (TCEHY) and Tesla (TSLA). New significant additions to the portfolio in the first-half were NetApp (NTAP), New Relic (NEWR), Nutanix (NTNX), Palo Alto Networks (PANW), RingCentral (RNG), Roku (ROKU), Spotify (SPOT), and Twilio (TWLO).

Thank you for your confidence and continued investment in the Berkshire Focus Fund.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 2018 (UNAUDITED)

1. Organization

The Berkshire Focus Fund (the “Fund”) is a non-diversified series of The Berkshire Funds (the “Trust”), an open-end management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”). The Trust was organized as a Delaware business trust on November 25, 1996. The Fund commenced operations on July 1, 1997. The Fund’s investment objective is to seek long-term growth of capital primarily through investments in equity securities.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

The Fund is an investment company and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification Topic 946 Financial Services – Investment Companies. The financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

The following is a summary of the Trust’s significant accounting policies:

Securities valuation — The Fund’s portfolio securities are valued as of the close of the regular session of trading on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”), normally 4:00 p.m., Eastern time. Securities which are traded on stock exchanges or are quoted by Nasdaq are valued at the last reported sale price as of the close of the regular session of trading on the NYSE, or, if not traded, at the most recent bid price. Securities which are traded in the over-the-counter market, and which are not quoted by Nasdaq, are valued at the most recent bid price, as obtained from one or more of the major market makers for such securities. Securities for which market quotations are not readily available are valued at their fair value as determined in good faith in accordance with consistently applied procedures established by and under the general supervision of the Board of Trustees.

The Trust has adopted accounting standards which establish an authoritative definition of fair value and set out a hierarchy for measuring fair value. These standards require additional disclosures about the various inputs and valuation techniques used to develop the measurements of fair value and a discussion of changes in valuation techniques and related inputs during the period. These standards define fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value hierarchy is organized into three levels based upon the assumptions (referred to as “inputs”) used in pricing the asset or liability. These standards state that “observable inputs” reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from independent sources and “unobservable inputs” reflect an entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. These inputs are summarized in the three broad levels listed below:

Level 1 – Quoted prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 – Other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.).

Level 3 – Significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments).

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used to value the Fund's investments as of June 30, 2018:

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 2018 (UNAUDITED)

Dividends from net investment income and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP.

Security transactions — Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date for financial reporting purposes. Securities sold are determined on a specific identification basis.

Estimates — The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Federal income tax — The Fund intends to comply with the requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”) necessary to qualify as a regulated investment company. As provided therein, in any fiscal year in which the Fund so qualifies and distributes at least 90% of its taxable net income, the Fund (but not the shareholders) will be relieved of federal income tax on the income distributed. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made.

As of and during the six month period ended June 30, 2018, the Fund did not have a liability for any unrecognized tax benefits. The Fund recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as other expense on the statement of operations. During the six month period ended June 30, 2018, the Fund did not incur any tax-related interest or penalties.

In order to avoid imposition of the excise tax applicable to regulated investment companies, it is also the Fund’s intention to declare as dividends in each calendar year at least 98% of its net investment income and 98.2% of its net realized capital gains plus undistributed amounts from prior years.

Other — The treatment for financial reporting purposes of distributions made to shareholders during the year from net investment income or net realized capital gains may differ from their ultimate treatment for federal income tax purposes. These differences are caused primarily by differences in the timing of the recognition of certain components of income, expense or realized capital gain for federal income tax purposes. Where such differences are permanent in nature, they are reclassified in the components of the net assets based on their ultimate characterization for federal income tax purposes. Any such reclassifications will have no effect on net assets, results of operations or net asset value per share of the Fund. At December 31, 2017, the following permanent adjustments were recorded. Such adjustments were attributed to the reclassification of net investment loss and non-deductible Federal excise tax, as well as the usage of equalization for tax purposes:

Paid-in capital	$ 1,405,796
Accumulated undistributed net investment income	983,446
Accumulated net realized loss from investments	(2,389,242)

Undistributed ordinary income	172,240

EXPENSE EXAMPLE

As a shareholder of the Fund, you incur two types of costs: (1) transaction costs, and (2) ongoing costs, including advisory fees, administrative fees and interest expense. This Example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. The Example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested in the Fund on January 1, 2018 and held through June 30, 2018.

Actual Expenses

The first line of the table on the following page provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. Although the Fund charges no sales load or transaction fees, you will be assessed fees for outgoing wire transfers, returned checks and stop payment orders at prevailing rates charged by Mutual Shareholder Services, LLC, the Fund's transfer agent. If you request that a redemption be made by wire transfer, currently a $20.00 fee is charged by the Fund's transfer agent. IRA accounts will be charged an $8.00 annual maintenance fee. If shares are redeemed within 90 days of purchase from the Fund, the shares are subject to a 2% redemption fee. To the extent the Fund invests in shares of other investment companies as part of its investment strategy, you will indirectly bear your proportionate share of any fees and expenses charged by the underlying funds in which the Fund invests in addition to the expenses of the Fund. Actual expenses of the underlying funds are expected to vary among the various underlying funds. These expenses are not included in the example. The example includes advisory fees, administrative fees and other Fund expenses. However, the example does not include portfolio trading commissions and related expenses and other extraordinary expenses as determined under generally accepted accounting principles. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the table provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds. Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as redemption fees or the charges by Mutual Shareholder Services, LLC as described above, or the expenses of the underlying funds. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

	Beginning Account Value January 1, 2018	Ending Account Value June 30, 2018	Expenses Paid During the Period* January 1, 2018 to June 30, 2018
Actual	$1,000.00	$1,221.70	$10.80
Hypothetical (5% annual return before expenses)	$1,000.00	$1,015.08	$9.79

*Expenses are equal to the Fund's annualized expense ratio of 1.96%, multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 181/365 to reflect the one-half year period.
