THE BERKSHIRE FUNDS PRIVACY NOTICE

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

We recognize our obligation to keep information about you secure and confidential. It's important for you to know that we do not sell or share Customer Information with marketers outside the Berkshire Funds and the service providers to the Fund. So, there is no need for you to tell us not to. You also need to know that we carefully manage information among our service providers to give you better service, more convenience, and to offer benefits to you.

The Berkshire Funds privacy policy covers Customer Information, which means personally identifiable information about a consumer or a consumer's current or former relationship with the Berkshire Funds. This notice generally describes the privacy policy, and is provided to you as required by the Federal Financial Privacy Law.

PROTECTING INFORMATION ABOUT YOU FROM MARKETERS OUTSIDE THE BERKSHIRE FUNDS

The Berkshire Funds do not sell or otherwise share any Customer Information with marketers outside the Berkshire Funds. You don't need to take any action to prevent disclosure. While we may offer products and services on behalf of outside companies, the Berkshire Funds and companies that work for us control the information used to make those offers.

MAKING THE SECURITY OF INFORMATION A PRIORITY

Keeping financial information secure is one of our most important responsibilities. We value your trust, and we handle information about you with care. Your Customer Information is handled by service providers for the Berkshire Funds. We limit access to Customer Information to those service providers who need to know that information to provide products and services to you or to maintain or service those products or services.

We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect Customer Information. We continually assess new technology for protecting information and we upgrade our systems when appropriate.

COLLECTING INFORMATION

We collect and use various types of information to service your accounts, to save you time and money, and to better understand your needs. We want to help you learn more about products and services that may be of interest to you.

We collect the following information about you from the following sources:

- Information you provide to us on applications and through other means, such as your name, address and Social Security Number.
- Information about your transactions and account experience with us, such as your account balance, investment history, and information about our communication with you, such as account statements and trade confirmations.

SHARING INFORMATION WITHIN THE BERKSHIRE FUNDS

At present the Fund is the only series authorized by The Berkshire Funds. In the future, the Board of Trustees may authorize the creation of additional series, creating a family of mutual funds. The Berkshire Funds have no employees. The Fund is organized as a trust, and does not own subsidiaries or have a parent company. The management of the Fund's investments and other operations of the Fund are carried out by various service providers that provide related services to the Fund and to you. These providers include, among others, the investment adviser, the transfer agent, the custodian and the administrator.

In the event of the creation of an additional series and in order to serve you, the Berkshire Funds will share Customer Information among the Funds. For example, we may provide a statement that consolidates information about your holdings in each Fund onto one statement. This statement may help to facilitate your understanding of your investment in the Berkshire Funds. In addition, if you invest in a new Berkshire Fund, our consolidation of information about you may help to ensure that you do not usually need to furnish account information more than once. By sharing information about your accounts and relationships among our family of service providers, we can save you time and money and make it easier for you to do business with us.

SHARING INFORMATION WITH COMPANIES THAT WORK FOR US

We may share various types of Customer Information with service providers that provide the Fund or you with products and services that the Fund or you have requested or already receive from us. We share only the information needed to provide those products and services and to provide a good customer experience. These service providers may include financial service providers such as the investment adviser, the custodian, the transfer agent, the administrator, and non-financial companies such as data processing companies. These service providers may assist us, for example, in fulfilling your service request, processing your transaction, maintaining company records, or helping us mail account statements and trade confirmations. In addition, we may share various types of Customer Information with companies that provide marketing and other services. All of these companies act on our behalf, and are obligated by contract or otherwise to keep the information that we provide to them confidential, and to use the information only to provide the services we've asked them to perform for you and us.

DISCLOSING INFORMATION IN OTHER SITUATIONS

We may also disclose various types of Customer Information to non-affiliated third parties when permitted or required by law. This may include, for example, a disclosure in connection with a subpoena or similar legal process, an investigation, or an audit or examination. We may also share any of the types of Customer Information outside our family of service providers if we have your consent.

MAKING SURE INFORMATION IS ACCURATE

Keeping the information about your account accurate and up-to-date is very important. We provide you with access to account information through various means such as account statements. If you ever find that your account information is incomplete, inaccurate or not current, or if you have any other questions, please contact us by any of the means listed below. We will try to investigate your inquiry or complaint and to update or correct any erroneous information as quickly as possible.

KEEPING UP-TO-DATE WITH OUR PRIVACY POLICY

The Berkshire Funds will provide notice of our privacy policy annually, as long as you maintain an ongoing relationship with us. This policy notice and the Fund's privacy policy may change from time to time, but you can always review our current privacy notice on our website at www.berkshirefunds.com or contact us for a copy of the privacy policy by calling 877-526-0707.

Our privacy policy applies only to individual Berkshire Funds investors who have a direct relationship with us. If you own Berkshire Funds in the name of a third party broker-dealer, bank, investment adviser or other financial services provider, that third party's privacy policy may apply to you and our privacy notice and privacy policy may not.
